

The Intellectual Freedom Award is given for upholding the principles of intellectual freedom as set forth by the American Association of School Librarians and the American Library Association.

Eligibility

1. Applicant must be personal member of AASL.
- 2.