Preamble

The strengths and dapacities did n for Excellence dontinues that path and focuses attention on four areas that dapit on our strengths, deliver high

rhember value, and heighten our impact: 1

- Value of Academic Libraries 1
- Student Learning 1
- Researchand Scholarly Environment 1
- New Roles and Changing Landscapes 1

These strategic areas will be supported by financial and operational planning, and will guide the 1 development and implementation of programs and services that target education, advocacy and 1 member engagement. 1

ACRL's readership views strategic thinking and planning as an ongoing process. Adoption of this 1 plan for excellence affirms the general intent and direction articulated by the association's core 1 ideology, envisioned future, shorter term goals, and objectives. Progress will be assessed annually 1 and will guide the operational planning process. The plan for 11

Long-term Envisioned Future

Vision

Academic and flesearch fibrarians and fibraries are essential to a thriving global community of 1 learners and scholars. 1

Vivid Description of a Desired Future

ACRL elevates the position, flecognition, and impact of all academic and felsearch 1

into student learning. 1

4. Articulate and advocate for the fole of fibrarians in setting, achieving, and measuring 1 institutional fearning outcomes. 1 1

Research and Scholarly Environment

Goal: The academic and research fibrary workforce Librarians accelerate the transition to more 1 open and equitable systems of scholarship. 1

Proposed Objectives: 1

- 1. Increasethe ways ACRL is an advocate and model for open dissemination and evaluation practices. 1
- 2. Enhancementers' dapacity to addressissuesrelated to scholarly dommunication, including 1 but not limited to data management, library publishing, open access and digital 1 scholarship. 1
- 3. Increase ACRL's efforts to influence scholarly publishing policies and practices 1