

amendment would work against the interests of transparency, fair competition, and enhanced public access to public information.

Sincere