

freedom to explore all sides of an idea and form their own opinions. Intellectual freedom

Intellectual freedom is your freedom to learn and think anytime and anyplace. This includes:

c

•Freedom to think for yourself and make up your own mind

c

c

•Freedom to gather with others to express your ideas peacefully

F

R

O

C

O

F

R

telling people what we can or cannot say (freedom of express their ideas (freedom of assembly).

F

A

freedom to explore all sides of an idea and form their

and argue about their ideas.

L

certain book or other media shouldn't be to protest. You can:

F

•Talk to the adults in your family about how you feel

•Talk to a teacher or a librarian

•Talk to the principal of your school

•Talk to your peers

•Get the word out to local media

F

also a great responsibility. Gathering new