Members of the 2018-2019 ALA Committee on Accreditation: Loretta Parham (Chair), Eric Albright, Rachel Applegate, Theresa Byrd, Kathleen De Long, David Eichmann, Robert Holley, Dale McNeill, Linda Smith, Karen Snow, and David Weigle.

At its Annual Conference Meeting, held June 22-23, 2019, the ALA Committee on Accreditation (COA) took the following actions:

What follows reflects the April 2018 policy revision to section I.15 (Accreditation decisions) of _____ (AP3), implemented to enhance public disclosure, that went into effect for all programs beginning in May 2018. The policy states that "any standard on which a program has follow-up reporting (following a comprehensive review or interim reporting review) is made public by the Office for Accreditation in the Directory of ALA-Accredited Programs and as a part of the usual means (e.g., press release, Accreditation Decisions and Actions Taken reports, and _____)."

Continued Accreditation status was granted to the following programs (listed in alphabetical order by institution), with the next comprehensive review visit scheduled to take place in spring 2026:

> Master of Information Science and Master of Library Science at Indiana University, Bloomington. Standard cited for follow-up reporting: II.1 (curriculum evolves in response to ongoing systematic planning). Contact the Office for Accreditation at accred@ala.org for the specifics cited.

> Master of Library Science at Indiana University Purdue University, Indianapolis. Meets all standards. No follow-up reporting required.

> Master of Library and Information Science at University of Southern Mississippi. Standards cited for follow-up reporting: I.1 (program's mission and goals pursued through implementation of an ongoing, broad-based, systematic planning process) and II.2.3 (responds to needs of a diverse and global society, including needs of underserved groups). Contact the Office for Accreditation at accred@ala.org for the specifics cited.

Master of Library and Information Science at Louisiana State University. Standards cited for follow-up reporting: I.1 (program's mission and goals pursued through implementation of an ongoing, broad-
