We currently have two confirmed proposals for 2008. A preconference organized by Feddocs and GITCO on federal election statistics and a program organized by State and Local on business resources.

Program is working with James Jacobs to develop a third program that may be an evening program at 2008 in California.

Program is just getting underway with planning for the FDLP program in the fall.

A second preconference organized by James Jacobs and devoted to Web2.0 and government information has been approved by steering. We will discuss this at the ALA Annual meeting.
