

Chapter 17: Education Committee

I. Purpose

The Education Committee shall identify needs and issues concerning the education of users of government documents and propose projects to meet these needs and resolve these problems.

The goal of this committee is to act as conduit for information regarding education resources in using government information to four audiences:

- x Users and potential users of government information
- x Government information librarians and staff
- x L

