

GODORT Rare & Endangered Government Publication Committee
ALA Midwinter Me

ninch, Aimee

Quinn, Vicki Tate (FDTF liaison), Nathan Wolfe, Sinai Wood, Marilyn Von Seggern

Guests present: Brandon Burnette (webmaster), Valerie Glenn, Simon Healey

Meeting Agenda

- A. Virtual GODORT membership meeting
 - B. DttP is moving to ALA's Open Journal Solutions platform beginning with the Fall 2016 issue.
 - C. Aimee and Shari have started a DttP column on rare & endangered government information.
 - D. Seats for the MAGIRT/GODORT pre-conference on data visualization at Annual are limited, so if you plan to attend, register as soon as the announcement is available.
 - E. Annual program on government data centers will be geared toward government documents librarians who would like to know more about how government data is distributed and used, and librarians who would like to know more about data services in academic libraries.
- III. Approval of REGP agenda
- IV. Approval of minutes:
http://wikis.ala.org/godort/images/2/2a/REGPAnnual_2015_Minutes.pdf
- V. Liaison reports: <https://hackpad.com/FDTF-5IxOgso67FR> (no log-in needed)
- A. SLDTF (Zavinski)
 - 1. Build a sustained focus on born-digital government information as a category of endangered publications.
 - 2. Improve GODORT's expertise and provide guidance related to GPO preservation initiatives, particularly FIPNet.

