

Why is Wood Library asking for community-based funding support?

Wood Library is asking the voters for community-based funding support because its current funding is neither adequate nor guaranteed. As a result, programs and services have

