

was not demonstrated. The First Wednesdays initiative did not take off as hoped and attendance at the events that did take place was small.

It is possible that while members would like to have opportunities to participate in YALSA locally, that they are not as interested or able to take the lead in organizing and sponsoring local events. In order to understand the best way to move forward with a local YALSA presence it would be useful for the Board to have a stronger knowledge of: